

This chart illustrates what do 8th grade students think in their opinion is the most important characteristic of a car

In terms of driving experience, 21.4% (3) of all the students chose this option making it the most popular opinion amongst the 14 8th graders that answered. The least popular option amongst the 8th graders was practicality, only 7.1% (1) of students chose it. The 2nd place for the most popular opinion is shared by comfort, looks, performance, safety and reliability, all of these options were chosen twice (17.3%). Overall, 8th grade students care more about how their car drives than how it looks or safe it is etc.