

Survey about Breakfast

By Milda Naruševučiūtė

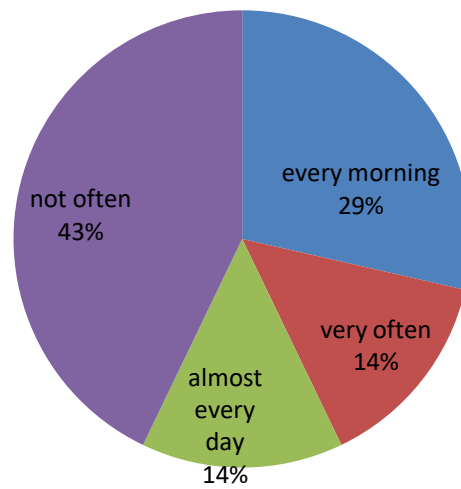

what's your favourite breakfast meal?

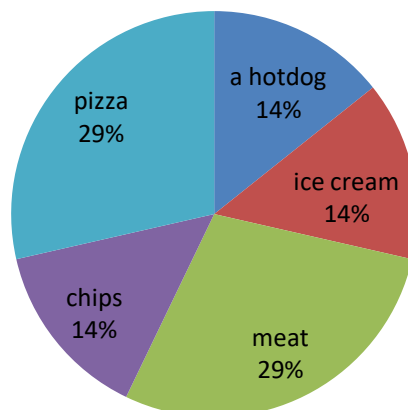

do you prefer eating breakfast with tea or coffee?

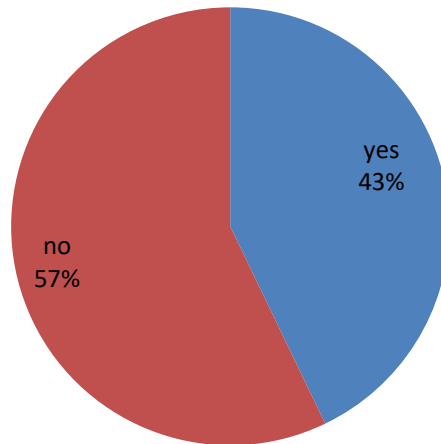

how often do you eat breakfast?

what's the weirdest meal you have eaten for breakfast?

do you prefer your breakfast sweet?

I asked seven people in my class questions about breakfast. Here are the results of my survey.

The favourite breakfast meals of most of my classmates are pancakes and fruits. 43 per cent like pancakes and fruits and 14 per cent prefers scrambled eggs. Most of my classmates prefer their breakfast with tea. Only one prefers it with coffee. A few of my classmates don't eat breakfast very often. The majority of them eat breakfast very often or every day. Most of my classmates say that the weirdest meal they have tried for breakfast are pizza or meat. Majority of them doesn't like sweet breakfast.
